Notes:

I've shown two different designs, one for Halloween and one for Christmas. The process is all the same. The colors and specific stamps are different. These directions are for the Halloween design, but here are the colors and papers for the alternate as well.

1. Use a wedge of a Stamping Sponge to ink the Kraft Pillow Box. I inked one third in Pumpkin Pie ink and the middle third in Daffodil Delight ink. Rub off any extra ink with a tissue.
2. Wrap the Designer Series Paper around the box. It is not quite long enough, so I placed the gap right in the front. I punched a scrap of card stock with the 1 1/8" Scallop Circle Punch and that piece to cover the gap.
3. Sponge the Whisper White card stock. Again, I created an ombré look by sponging with Pumpkin Pie on one side, then Daffodil Delight. I left the other end white.
4. Stamp the Whisper White card stock with the stamp for the holiday you're celebrating. The beauty of this stamp is that you can stamp three tags at a time or just one. If you use the Trio of Tags Dies, they will cut out all three at once or one by one. The dies are the same set for all three holiday stamps. They add the hole for the tags at the same time.
5. If you are making the Happy Boo from me to you, you may want to cut out two pumpkins from a Pumpkin Pie card stock scrap. Adhere over the stamped pumpkins on the tag.
6. Cut out the stamped tag(s).
7. Wrap the ribbon over the Designer Series Paper and tie it in a bow over the scallop circle.
8. Lace the Linen Thread through the tag and tie it around the bow.
9. Fold in one end of the Pillow Box that has the finger hole. Fold in the other side on that end. Fill the box, then fold in the other end the same way.
