Notes:

- Score the 8 1/4" x 4 1/4" card stock at 5 1/2". Fold and crease for the card base.
- Stamp "Hoping this season builds heartwarming memories" in Basic Gray ink at the very bottom right corner of the large section.
- Stamp the larger snowflakes two times in Coastal Cabana ink on the very right side of the large section. I stamped about 1" above the message and about 1" from the top corner. Stamp the smaller snowflakes two times in Coastal Cabana ink above each of the other snowflakes.
- Cut the 2 3/4" x 3 1/2" card with the Stitched Labels Die.
- Stamp the snowman with the scarf in Basic Gray ink on the Stitched Label.
- Very carefully dab a tiny dot of Snowfall Accents Puff Paint on each of the snowflakes. This paint is very thin, about like milk. Shake well before using. I recommend having this card stock on the Silicone Craft Sheet, as the paint may soak through the card stock and stick to whatever is underneath. Hold the bottle sideways and do not squeeze. If you accidentally get too much, just wipe off with a facial tissue and try again. Immediately use the Heat Tool on each of the dots. They will pop up dramatically! Do not overheat, as I understand they will look like toasted marshmallows. You can heat on the Silicone Mat.
- Color the snowman's carrot nose with the Pumpkin Pie Stampin' Blends™.
- Color the tree needles with the Shaded Spruce Marker (fine tip).
- Color the coal with the Journaling pen.
- Color the stripes on the scarf and hat brim with the Real Red Marker.
- Add texture and shine with the Shimmery Crystal Effects to the nose and buttons. I put the tip at the base of the carrot, squeeze out a bit, and pulled it up toward the tip. Hold the bottle still until the Crystal Effects separates. Touch the bottle to each button, squeeze out a bit, and lift up just a bit. Again, wait until it separates. Allow to set.
- Adhere the Designer Series Paper on the small section of the card base.
- Fold the ribbon and adhere it to the right side of the Designer Series Paper so the ends are in a V just over the greeting.
- Adhere the label with Stampin' Dimensionals over the Designer Series Paper and cover the fold of the ribbon.
