Notes:

1. Stamp the poinsettia in Real Red ink around the front of a note card, turning the stamp and filling in as close as possible.
2. Cut one sheet of the Granny Apple Green Designer Series Paper to 4 ½". Turn and cut the larger piece in half. This gives you two 3" x 4 ½" pieces and a useable 1 ½" x 6" piece for another project.

3. Adhere one 3" x 4 ½" piece centered on the front of the note card.
4. Slide the 2" Circle Punch from the left side of the card as far as possible. Center top and bottom. Punch. Keep the Whisper White circle for this project. You can keep the Designer Series Paper circle for another project.
5. Fold and crease for the card base.
6. Thread the ribbon through the hole and tie a bow.
7. Ink the poinsettia in Real Red ink. Use a Blender Pen to remove the ink from the leaves. It helps to look at the image on the stamp case. Pick up some ink from the Granny Apple Green stamp pad, then pick up the ink with the Blender Pen to color in the lines for the leaves. Give the "breath of life" to the stamp and stamp on the Whisper White circle. You can leave it as it is or you can color it in with a bit of ink and the Blender Pen.
8. Put three Stampin' Dimensionals around the stamped circle. Place the stamped circle into the hole on the card front and carefully open the card so the circle stays on the inside of the card.

This stamp set does not have a greeting that says Merry Christmas. You could use the "for you" stamp and use this card with a gift. If you have a stamp from another set, you could certainly use it. I think this card is plenty festive and you could hand-write a Christmas greeting inside.
