Notes:

- Score the Seaside Spray card stock at 4 1/4". Fold and crease for the card base.
- Stamp a shell in Sahara Sand ink on the bottom left corner, if desired. Perhaps stamp I'm so happy I found you in Soft Suede ink. Adhere this layer to the inside of the card.
- Place the darker small and the larger scallop and the whelk in position on the die. Pick the stamps up with a D block. Stamp all 3 shells in Sahara Sand ink on the Pearlescent Specialty Paper. Allow to dry. Then cut out with the large die. The place the piece in the embossing folder, positioning it with the same shells. Roll through the Stampin' Cut & Emboss Machine.
- Stamp the 2 3/4" x 2 1/4" piece of Very Vanilla card stock with the greeting. I used Friends are like seashells... you collect them along the way. Cut this out with the #8 die from Stitched So Sweetly.
- Use the #7 die from Stitched So Sweetly to cut the Sand & Sea Designer Series Paper of your choice.
- Emboss the 4" x 5 1/4" Seaside Spray layer in the embossing folder and roll through the machine. Use a Sponge Dauber and White Craft ink to highlight the raised areas on the card stock. Allow to dry. Add a bit of adhesive to the back side in the middle of the two short sides. Wrap the ribbon across the front and adhere the ends to the back.
- Adhere the greeting from step 4 to the Designer Series Paper from step 5. Adhere this to the middle of the card and over the ribbon.
- Fussy cut the bits of paper holding the shells together. Adhere these to the card front with Stampin' Dimensionals.
- Adhere 3 of the Opal Rounds in the upper right corner.
