Notes:

- Score the Mossy Meadow card stock at 4 1/4". Fold and crease for the card base.
- Stamp the large Corner Bouquet in VersaMark ink in the lower left corner of the 3 7/8" x 5 1/8" Mossy Meadow piece. Stamp the greeting in the center of the open area in the upper right corner. Dust generously with the Whit Stampin' Emboss Power. Pour the excess powder back into the tub. Remove any extraneous flecks by flicking or use a small paint brush. Heat with the Heat Tool.
- Stamp the small Corner Bouquet stamp in Mossy Meadow ink in the bottom left corner of one of the Basic White layers. Adhere to the inside of the card.
- Adhere the other Basic White layer to the front of the card.
- Color three of the gems with the Mossy Meadow Stampin' Blends Marker. I used the dark for all of the Stampin' Blends™ for this project.
- Now that the embossing powder has cooled, color the embossed flowers with Stampin' Blends™. I colored the stems and leaves with the Granny Apple Green Stampin' Blends™. There seemed to be three kinds of flowers. I colored the smallest ones in Balmy Blue, the longer flowers in Poppy Parade, and the remaining flowers in Highland Heather. If you go over too much, you can "push" the ink back with the Color Lifter. Avoid using the Color Lifter on the embossing.
- Adhere the colored layer on the front of the card over the Basic White layer. This leaves a very narrow border.
- Adhere the gems in a row under the greeting.

If you purchase all the listed supplies, your total will qualify for the two level 1 Sale-a-Bration products.
