Notes:

1. Score the Blackberry Bliss card stock at 4 ¼". Fold and crease for the card base.
2. Stamp one of the white layers with an image of your choice. I stamped the same tall flowers in Mossy Meadow but thought about using the dragonfly or the little cluster of bugs. Adhere to the inside of the card.
3. Stamp the tall flower stamp in Mossy Meadow ink in the middle of the Whisper White card stock with the top about ½" down from the top.
4. Stamp the greeting in Mossy Meadow in the bottom left corner.
5. Adhere two of the Designer Series Paper squares to the right corners and the third between them and in a bit.
6. Place the pegs of the Bow Maker in neighboring holes. Wrap the 10" piece of Mossy Meadow braided trim around the pegs, leaving about 3" on one side and a long piece on the other. The short piece will go over the long piece, down and through the pegs, back up and over. Before tying the knot, place the 3" piece between the ends. When you tie the knot, this will appear to be the tails of the bow.
7. Put adhesive on the back side of the white layer on the edges where you thing the trim will go. Place the bow over the greeting. Wrap the ends of the trim behind the layer and adhere.
8. Adhere this layer to the card front.
9. Punch out a small and large dragonfly. You will want to cut these out from the Designer Series Paper before punching to eliminate waste. Adhere the dragonflies to the card with Stampin' Dimensionals.
