Notes:

- Score the Basic White card stock at 1 ¾", 3 ½", 5 ¼", and 7". Fold in a fan fold and crease.
- Fold at the 3 1/2" score line. Measure 1 ½" inches from the top of the card. Cut from the fold to the 5 ¼" score line. Flip and make the same cut on the bottom side of the card.
- With the large section on the right, pop out the center section for the pop out.
- Optional: Stamp the candles in Memento Ink to the right of the 7" score line, alternating back and forth a bit. Do not stamp more than 1 ¾" from the score line. This does eliminate an area that you would sign the card. If you do decide to stamp the candles, you may want to color them with either the Stampin' Write Markers or the Stampin' Blends™. You could also leave them black and white.
- Adhere the large section to the Poppy Parade card base.
- Stamp Happy birthday in Memento Ink on the ½" Basic White strip.
- Stamp the three puffins in Memento Ink on the 2 ½" strip. I stamped the birthday hat puffin and the small puffin upright. I tilted the dancing puffin so it looks like he's carrying the cake on his shoulder. Leave plenty of room around the images. Color the beak and feet in Pool Party ink. Punch out the puffins with the Label Me Lovely Punch. Use the scraps to stamp just the birthday hat and the cake. Color, if you like. "Fussy Cut" the hat and cake. Adhere the hat with Mini Stampin' Dimensionals over the stamped image. Adhere the cake on the shoulder of that tilted puffin.
- Adhere the 1 ½" x 5" Pattern Party Designer Series Paper to the first and fourth panels. Adhere the 2" x 5" Designer Series Paper to the right side of the large panel.
- Use the #4 Scallop Contours Die to cut three pieces from the 2" Poppy Parade strip. Adhere a rectangle on the center section, centered between panels one and two. Repeat with the second rectangle between panels three and four. Adhere the third rectangle on the large panel. Make sure to keep it close to the fold. It should not show when the card is closed.
- Adhere the punched puffins to the rectangles. I put the one wearing the hat on the first rectangle, using Stampin' Dimensionals. The small puffin is on the second rectangle. The one with the cake is on the large section.
- Place the strip with Happy Birthday on the Bermuda Bay strip, aligning the right ends. Flag both ends together. Move the white strip to align it with the left end. Adhere to the card aligning the left side of the strips to the left side of the card.
