Notes:

The size was based on the clear vinyl checkbook covers I've ordered from Amazon. It does not make the best use of 8 1/2" x 11" copy paper or card stock. You'll have lots of scraps. But there is a way to cut the scraps down into useable resources.* The design is perfect for the 12" x 12" Designer Series Paper. You can get 8 pieces from one sheet.

- Download my Word or PDF file. Add your local holidays, regularly scheduled workshops, family birthdays, or other events to my file. This is easy if you use Word. If not, you may need to print it out and either write in your dates by hand or print and physically print, copy, & paste the old-fashioned way and then scan.
- Print the calendar file double sided, flip on the short edge. Stack the 3 sheets in order. On the January/December side, cut on the outside line.
- Place the calendar pages onto the 6 1/8" x 6 1/2" Soft Sea Foam piece with the January/December side facing the card stock. Staple in the middle. You can use most standard staplers, but I use a long arm stapler because it's got a moveable stop that allows me to easily staple right where I want it.
 - You can modify your own stapler. Cut a piece of scrap paper to 6 1/8" x 6 1/2". Fold it in half. Open the stapler. Place the fold at the stapler's groove. Place Stampin' Dimensionals at the edge as a stop.
- Fold the calendar, using a Bone Folder.
- Decorate the 3" x 6" Designer Series Paper before adhering to the calendar.
 - Stamp the silhouette of the leaves in Granny Apple Green ink. I stamped three times, once above and a bit to the left of the leaves, once in the middle near the bottom, and once in the upper left corner.
 - Tear the Vellum card stock roughly 1 1/2" x 4". It's easy to tear the vellum fairly straight, but I wanted it wavy and rough. Adhere this on the left half of the Designer Series Paper. I covered the center of the area, so that's where I used the adhesive.
 - Tear a scrap of Soft Sea Foam card stock roughly 1/2" x 3 1/2". Adhere this over the vellum at an angle.
 - Punch the Granny Apple Green scrap with the Bough Punch. Punch the Basic White scrap with just the flowers. Adhere the leaves at the bottom of the stamped leaves. Adhere the Basic White flowers over the green leaves. Adhere the green flowers over the white ones.
 - Run about a 2" strip of Stampin' Seal at the bottom left side of the vellum. Adhere the ribbon, folding back and forth, leaving a folded fringe.
 - Tear a scrap of Granny Apple Green card stock roughly 1/2" x 4". Adhere this over the top folds of the ribbon.

g. Stamp Relax & enjoy your day! In Granny Apple Green ink on the Soft Sea Foam card stock. Punch with the Label Me Fancy Punch. Adhere over the center of the Granny Apple Green strip. If you are using a clear checkbook cover, adhere the label directly with Stampin' Seal or another adhesive. If not using the cover, you may want to use Stampin' Dimensionals.

6. Slip the cover of the calendar into the pockets of the checkbook cover.

*I had 2 scraps for each calendar, 2" x 6" and 4 7/8" x 8 1/2" I used the smaller scraps for the labels and torn strips. I cut the larger scraps into two of my standard layers, one 4" x 5 1/2" and the other 2 3/4" x 4 1/4". This left three acceptably small, but probably useable strips: 7/8" x 5 1/4", 1/2" x 4 7/8", and 5/8" x 2 3/4".
