Notes:

1. Assemble the Acetate Box. Fill with Fish Crackers.
2. Wrap the 6" strip around the box, centered on the back. It will not go all the way around. "Finger press" at the corners of the box. Remove and crease the folds. Return to the box. Adhere the 3" strip centered on the box. The box is actually 3 1/8". You could cut this piece to that size, but a lot of paper would be wasted.
3. Stack the ribbons and tie around the box and tie in a knot. I put the Bumblebee piece on top with a bit of the black at the bottom. I let the black and white ends show on top. My knot is on the far left side.
4. Stamp You are utterly awesome in VersaMark ink and heat emboss with the Black Stampin' Emboss Powder or Tuxedo Black Memento ink about 2" up from the bottom and about 1/4" from the side of the Bumblebee card stock. I tilted it a bit. Punch this out with the smooth heart punch.
5. Stamp the otter with the fish in VersaMark ink and heat emboss with the Black Stampin' Emboss Powder or Tuxedo Black Memento ink on the remainder of the Bumblebee piece. Color the eyes with the white watercolor pencil. (You could skip this or use a white gel pen if you don't have the watercolor pencils.) Color the otter's belly with the SU700 Medium Light Stampin' Blends™ Marker. Color the rest of the otter (except for its nose) with the SU500 Medium Stampin' Blends™ Marker. Do not color the fish. Cut out.
6. Punch the Basic Black card stock with the scallop heart punch.
7. Adhere the Bumblebee heart to the black heart. Adhere above and below the ribbon in the center of the band.
8. Adhere the otter to the heart, tilted to the right.
