Notes:

If you are making multiples of this project, cut one set of the peaches and leaves and use the frame for placement on a Stamparatus. Cut the remaining peaches and leaves closer together to save time and card stock.

- Use a Blending Brush to add Calypso Coral ink to the Sweet Little Box. Crease all the score lines. Assemble the box.
 - Tuck in the tabs in the middle.
 - Remove the backing from the sides.
 - Adhere the other side panels over the adhesive.
- Add the candy. Seve peach Jolly Rancher candies* fit nicely.
- Tuck in the flap.
- Wrap the strip of Designer Series Paper around the box, starting with one end at a corner and going across a 2 ½" side. Finger press to mark the edges. Remove. Crease the edge marks with the Bone Folder.
- Add adhesive to the end of the large section of the Designer Series Paper. Starting with the small section on the back of the box and about ½" up from the bottom of the box, wrap the strip around the box. The large section should end right at the back edge of the box.
- Ink the large pear and the three smaller peaches with Pale Papaya ink. Daub Calypso Coral ink with the Sponge Dauber on the bottoms and the sides (with the creases) of the peaches. Stamp on the Basic White card stock.
- On the Basic White card stock, stamp the large stamp with multiple leaves and the stem with two leaves in Pear Pizzazz ink. Stamp the greeting Have a peachy day in Pear Pizzazz ink in the center of the large peach.
- Cut all the peaches and leaves with the coordinating dies.
- Glue the large piece with multiple leaves to the box over the Designer Series Paper band. The bottom leaf tips should be near to the bottom of the box.
- Adhere the small peaches to the stems with Stampin' Dimensionals.
- Punch a hole near the top of the large peach. The Label Me Fancy Punch has a hole punch, but any small hole punch will work. Lace the white Baker's Twine through the hole.
- Wrap the Pale Papaya ribbon around the top of the box and tie a bow.
- Tie the large peach to the bow with the Baker's Twine and tie in a bow.
- Adhere the stem to the large peach next to the twine.

*Peach Jolly Ranchers are available from Amazon.
