Notes:

- Score the 4 1/4" x 11" Orchid Oasis card stock at 5 1/2", 6 1/2", 8 1/2", and 9 1/2". Fold and crease for the card base.
- Score the 5 1/4" x 2 3/4" at 4" and 5". Crease.
- Use the Mini Pocket Envelopes die to cut the 5 1/4" x 4" card stock, Crease all score lines. Use Tear & Tape Adhesive to adhere the pocket closed.
- Cut the dark end of the Glimmer Paper at 1 3/4" (1 3/4" x 4" and 3 1/2" x 4"). Adhere the larger piece, light side up, to the large section of the card base. Fold the card base at the 5 1/2" score line. Add Tear & Tape Adhesive to the small section at the end. Remove the backing. Fold the card base with the 2 sections at the end under. Press to adhere. Add the smaller piece of Glimmer Paper to the 2" x 4" section.
- Put Tear & Tape Adhesive on the end of the Polished Pink card stock with the largest section. Add another strip of Tear & Tape Adhesive about 1 1/2" from that strip. It must be within 1 3/4" from the end. Flip over and put another strip of Tear & Tape Adhesive on the other end of the card stock. Fold between the large section and the two smaller sections. The Tear & Tape Adhesive should be on the outside of both sides, but with the piece folded, you will see them on the same side. Remove the backing from the two strips on the larger section. Center the folded piece onto the card base. Remove the backing from the single strip of Tear & Tape Adhesive and adhere to the card base. Rub all the areas with Tear & Tape Adhesive firmly to be sure they all hold to the Glimmer Paper.
- Adhere the Mini Pocket to the Polished Pink layer.
- Stamp the pig with the balloon with Tuxedo Black Memento ink onto the smaller piece of Basic White card stock.
- Ink a Sponge Dauber lightly with Polished Pink ink, tap off some ink, and lightly tap on the pig's head and bottom. You may want to add a bit more ink to the ears and nose with the side of the Dauber.
- Ink another Sponge Dauber lightly with Daffodil Delight ink, tap off some ink, and lightly tap on the cake.
- Ink another Sponge Dauber lightly with Orchid Oasis ink, tap off some ink, and lightly tap on the balloon. You may want to add Wink of Stella® Clear Glitter Brush to the balloon.
- Adhere to the pocket.
- Stamp a greeting with Tuxedo Black Memento ink to the very top of the remaining piece of Basic White card stock. I used the one that says This little piggy says happy birthday! I masked the bottom line and stamped This little piggy. You can use any tape or the Masking Paper over the words you don't want. Remove the masking after you ink the stamp. Then I cleaned the stamp and masked the top line so finish the sentiment with about 1/2" between the two lines. Slide this piece into the pocket. You could add a gift card behind the greeting piece.
- Cut the ribbon in half and then cut one piece in half again. You will have 3 pieces: 16", 8" and 8". Cut the two smaller pieces in half lengthwise. Wrap the long piece around the top of the Polished Pink piece. Tie a knot around the smaller pieces of ribbon. Cut the tied ribbon ends in half lengthwise.

*If you do not want to use the Stampin' Cut & Emboss Machine, just cut the 5¼" x 4" Orchid Oasis card stock to 2½" x 3¾". Swap the two pieces of Basic White for one piece that is 2¼" x 3½" and do all your stamping on this layer. You can write your greeting on the back of the card either directly on the Orchid Oasis or on a 4" x 5¼" Basic White layer.
