Notes:

Prepare

1. Score the Garden Green card stock at 4 ¼". Fold and crease for the card base.

Cut & Emboss

2. Mark one of the Basic White pieces at 1" on each short side of each of the pieces of Basic White card stock. Place a strip of Masking Paper across the marks.
3. Place one card stock in the pine embossing folder so the Masking Paper is at the edge of the embossing. Run through the Stampin' Cut & Emboss Machine. Slide the card stock to the other side of the folder and repeat, embossing top and bottom, leaving a 1" section plain. This is the top layer.
4. Repeat, embossing the inside layer with just the 1" section.

Stamp & Color

5. Lightly rub the embossed sections with a Sponge Dauber and Garden Green ink. Slowly and carefully, remove the Masking Paper. Because this is pressed tightly to the card stock, it might be best to use a Heat Tool to soften the adhesive. Lightly rub this piece with the Sponge Dauber and Garden Green ink.
6. Stamp the greeting in Real Red ink on the plain section of the top layer. I used Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year, but really any winter greeting that fits in the 1" x 5" area.

Assemble

7. With the Real Red ribbon, tie a bow around the front section just under the greeting area. Adhere to the front of the card. If your bow doesn't sit right, use a mini glue dot or two to hold it in place.
8. Add 3 Red Rhinestones on each side of the greeting. I used a ruler or piece of card stock across the center of the greeting, allowing me to get the gems lined up. I placed the center gem first and then a gem on either side.
9. Adhere the inside layer.
10. Thread the Linen Thread through the hole in the flat Jingle Bell. Tie the thread in a bow around the Real Red bow.
