Notes:

Prepare

- Score the 2" x 8½" Lemon Lolly card stock at 2 ½", 3 ½", and 6". Fold and crease for the box base. There will be one large section that's the front, one small section that's the bottom, one large section that's the back, and one large section that's the flap.
- Score the 1" x 6½" Lemon Lolly card stock at 2", 3", 5", and 6". Fold and crease for the box sides.

Cut

- Cut the Bubble Bath card stock two times with the die with three single petals.
- Cut the Lemon Lime Twist card stock with the leaf with the long stem.
- Cut the Lemon Lolly scrap with the circle die that looks like a sun with rays.
- With the Elegant Edge Tag Topper, punch the flap end of the Lemon Lolly piece from step 1.

Color and Prepare

- You may want to color the edges of the petals with the Bubble Bath Stampin' Write Marker.
- Thoroughly wet the petals and Lemon Lolly flower center with the rubbing alcohol. Gently scrunch and form each petal. Cross the base and add a dot of Multipurpose Liquid Glue to hold. Fold the flower center in half and scrunch.

Assemble

- Adhere three petals with the bases slightly overlapping. Repeat with the other 3 petals. Adhere the two sets together, so the top petals are between the bottom petals. Add the flower center. I used Multipurpose Liquid Glue, as it will hold as the flower finishes drying. If they are dry, a glue dot will work too.
- Adhere the ½" flap of the 1" x 6½" Lemon Lolly piece to the other end. Crease. Glue the long sides inside the box base so it sits at the bottom of the box.
- If you are using the Velcro, add the rough side near the edge of the flap. Stick the soft side to the rough side and close the flap for perfect placement.
- If you are using the alligator hair clips, adhere the leaf to the clip. Adhere the flower over the leaf. Clip the flap closed.
- You could just use a Mini Glue Dot to hold the box flap closed and not use either the clip or the Velcro.
