Notes:

Prepare

1. Score the Garden Green card stock at 2⅞" and 4¼". Fold and crease for the card base.

Cut & Emboss

2. Cut the Pecan Pie card stock with the tree trunk. Notice that this die does not cut on the long straight line. Rotate the die, line up the straight edge with the embossed edge, and cut again.
3. Cut all of the leaves and the vine from both the Garden Green and Lemon Lime Twist 4" x 5¼" card stock.

Stamp & Color

4. Stamp the sloth in Tuxedo Black Memento Ink on a scrap of the Pecan Pie card stock and cut with the sloth die.
5. Stamp the tiger in Tuxedo Black Memento Ink on the Daffodil Delight card stock and cut with the tiger die.

Assemble

6. Adhere the Designer Series Paper to the two narrow panels and the outside edge of the card base. Leave a ⅛" margin on the top, bottom and outside edges. The Designer Series Paper should meet in the center when the card is closed.
7. Adhere the Basic White card stock next to the Designer Series Paper on the inside of the card.
8. Adhere the tree trunk with the right edge slightly overlapping the fold of the card.
9. Adhere the various leaves and vines as you like them. Also glue the tiger and the sloth where you want them.
 - a. On my card,
 - i. I put the large single Garden Green leaf over the bottom of the inside where the Basic White and the Designer Series Paper meet.
 - ii. I glued just the left edge of the large leaf cluster (Lemon Lime Twist) so it hung over nearly to the edge of the closed card.
 - iii. I put the tiger on the inside so it is mostly hidden behind the leaf in 9. A. ii.
 - iv. I put the Garden Green vine near the top of the inside and the left side of the Lemon Lime Twist vine on the top of the front flap.
 - v. I added a few more leaves to hide the tiger and to support the parts hanging over the edge.
 - vi. I glued the sloth to a branch and the vine.
10. I added a few Lemon Lime Twist Tinsel Gems.

11. Stamp the greeting in either the Tuxedo Black Memento or Garden Green ink.
