Notes:

Prepare

1. Fold and crease the note card for the card base.
2. Stamp the butterflies two times in Basic Gray ink on the Lemon Lolly Card Stock.
3. Color the butterflies with the Golden Glow Shimmer Brush.
4. Die cut the one long side of the Designer Series Paper with the lacy edging die. Adhere to the card front just on the edges. I put the lacy edge on the bottom, leaving about 1/4" white showing.
5. You may want to use the same lacy border for the edge of the flap on the envelope.
6. Die cut the butterflies.
7. Die cut the rectangle label from about 3/4" from the right side of the card and centered top to bottom. We will use the white piece.
8. Stamp the greeting in Basic Gray ink on the label you just cut out.
9. You will need one full strip plus 3 more butterflies. Cut off the 3 remaining butterflies, separating them.
10. Lay out the two strips of butterflies across the top of the Designer Series Paper, adjusting for a smaller gap. Then glue in place.
11. Add the 3 separate butterflies with Stampin' Dimensionals. I used one to cover up the gap, but I don't really think it's needed.
12. With the card closed, fit the greeting label into the opening and adhere with Stampin' Dimensionals.
13. Add one of each size of Lemon Lolly Array of Dots Embellishments.

Note: If you don't like the tight fit, you can cut it four times for a slightly larger hole. You will have only one full label piece.
